

About Today's Guest Preacher

Maurice Bahati M. Namwira, has been in Maine now 5 years. He is a Pastor, a Human rights actor, and a project manager. Originally from the Democratic Republic of Congo, before coming to the United States of America, he was serving as an associate pastor and was the Executive Director of HERITIERS de LA JUSTICE; a leading nonprofit organization specializing in Human rights, peace building, conflict transformation, and mediation. With a Bachelor in Systematic theology, and trained in stress management and healing and transformation of trauma, he used his skills to help and teach the people of God until he was forced to leave his country for safety and healthcare; leaving behind him all his family. Now as he has been granted asylum, he has applied for family reunification.
